Claims Rejection Under 35 USC - 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:
(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 2, 3 and 6-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Spitzer (6,349,001).

Spitzer discloses industrial safety assembly including disposable ear protection and earphone which comprises a telecommunications receiver carried inside of the eyeglass, telecommunications transmitter carried inside of the eyeglass, a battery carried by the eyeglass, a pair of earphones and a microphone is connected to an orbital.

Claims Rejection Under 35 USC - 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 4 and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Spitzer (6,349,001).

With regard to claim 4, Spitzer discloses industrial safety assembly including disposable ear protection and earphone which comprises a telecommunications receiver carried inside of the eyeglass, telecommunications transmitter carried inside of the eyeglass, a battery carried by the eyeglass, a pair of earphones and a microphone is connected to an orbital.

Spitzer does not disclose the storage device comprises an MP3 storage device.

However, the storage device comprises an MP3 storage device are well known in the art of the memory device for the purpose storage the music. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to make the telecommunication spectacle, of Spitzer, include MP3 storage device for the purpose storage the music.

Art Unit: 2873

With regard to claim 5, Spitzer does not disclose the power supply is rechargeable.

However, the power supply is rechargeable are well known in the art of the power supply for the purpose reusing. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to make the telecommunication spectacle, of Spitzer, include the power supply is rechargeable for the purpose reusing.
